Hi Victor,

ready_to_discount sent you a message about your request:

"Hi, mate To be honest, this is not a real one but it is 'A' class high quality replica Morel Maximo (the quality is 85%++ match the genuine one). We can't put the word of "replica" on ebay listing as it is not allowed by ebay. Some members are not sure about this and some of them send the email to us regarding this matter and we will tell the truth to them. We sell these speakers to members who need it at lower price (4 & 5 time lower than the real one), some people want Moral Maximo at lower price, so they go to buy this from us. And we have sold off many these speakers to ebay members and our local customers without hassle. According to our listing term of sales, you need to return the item to us at your cost for full refund. Since your case is special, we really want to help is that possible we partial refund AU$95 to you and you keep the speakers. (As the balance AU$25 + AU$25 (we bear it) goes to Fastway courier and not us). At the same time, you might sell the speakers locally to cover up the balanced money. Hope to hear from you soon. Thanks "
